

Go Further

T43.1EC

Steering, Suspension & Brakes

Ensure you are delivering excellent customer service by attending this new course!

Course Aim:

- To enable students to service and make adjustments to brake, steering and suspension systems on current Ford vehicles
- To enable students to diagnose and make repairs to brake, steering and suspension systems on current Ford vehicles following best practice and procedures.

Subject Matter Includes:

- Current steering and suspension systems
- Run Flat Tyres
- Service adjustments
- Subframe alignment
- Brake systems service and repair
- Inspection of system components
- Replacement of service parts
- Demonstration and use of equipment
- Road Test for Customer Concerns
- Tyre Wear Assessment
- Practical Concern Diagnosis

Method:

Classroom and Workshop practical

Note:

Dress code for this course is smart casual. Delegates participating in practical exercise will need to bring PPE. Refer to course joining instructions for further details.

Target Audience:

- Service Technician
- Diagnostic Technician
- Master Technician

Level:

Basic

Course Duration:

2 days

Cost:

£165 + VAT per day

BOOK YOUR COURSE

1. Call the Ford College to check available dates and training location. Please inform the Ford College Team that you are a Ford Blue Oval Club Member
2. If you are new to Ford College Training, please complete an Enrolment Form
3. Ford College will contact you to confirm your course booking
4. Receive your booking confirmation and joining instructions
5. Attend your course

CONTACT FORD COLLEGE

T: 01327 30523

F: 01327 305710

E: fcolldav@ford.com